VOTING RIGHTS: WHAT YOU CAN DO TO COMBAT VOTER SUPPRESSION

Monday, March 25, 2024 - 7 pm ET

SUMMARY

The right to vote as established in Article 21 of the UDHR is the bedrock of democracy and essential to the fulfillment of other rights. Yet this fundamental right is under attack. This module is designed to address the problem of voter suppression and voter apathy by engaging participants in ways they can promote voting and voting rights in their own communities and classrooms.

OBJECTIVES

- Establish the importance of voting and civic engagement to human rights and democracy
- Discuss modern day voter suppression and voter apathy
- Develop ways to promote the vote and combat voter suppression in one's own community
- Explore how to integrate voting education and action into classroom curriculum
