

EDMONDS FELLOWSHIP: APPLICATIONS OPENED NOW!

SUMMARY

In honor of Kirby Edmonds' legacy, co-founder of HRE USA, HRE USA created the Edmonds Summer Fellowship to support hands-on leadership experience in human rights education and further Kirby's work to engage young people in building human rights-friendly schools and communities.

APPLY NOW!

<https://forms.gle/uTyLD9Nrd8Wyqjk1A>

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS

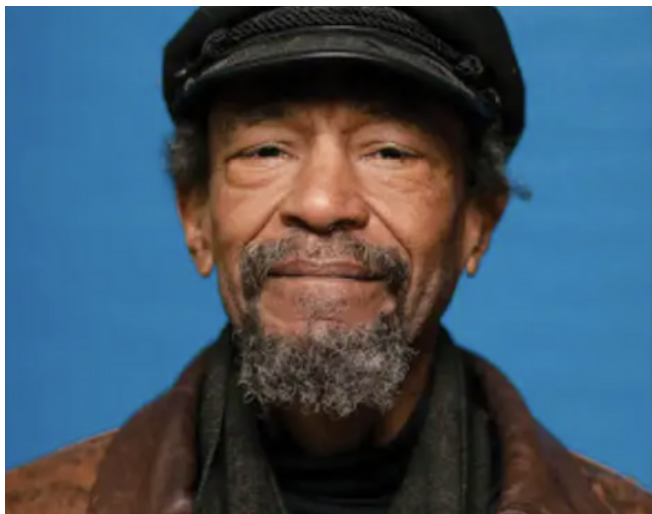

1) The 2024-25 Training as Action Series Development and Evaluation – The selected fellow will design the 2024-25 session, identify co-sponsors to expand the community network, and improve organizational processes in order to strengthen the national movement for human rights education.

2) The 2024-25 Fundraising Strategy and Sustainability Project – The selected fellow will support development efforts by conducting research and strategic outreach in order to create a fundraising plan, campaign communication materials, and more.

Project Descriptions and Application Materials

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Ability to commit 100 hours between June 1-August 30, 2024
- 18 years old or older
- $1,500 stipend

THE DOROTHY COTTON
INSTITUTE

Building Global Community for Human Rights Leadership